

Detailed information on the Internationalization Fund (I-Fonds) of the University of Bremen

1. Funding lines, eligible expenditure, funding rates

Funding line	Eligible expenditure	Funding rates
Boost for international cooperation projects	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Travel expenses (allowances) Material resources (grants) in the context of coordination meetings and kick-off workshops (consumables, advertising materials, room rental only if it can be proven that no free rooms are available. Hospitality costs and gifts for guests are not eligible) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> one-off per person/trip up to € 800 within Europe or € 1,500 outside Europe Funding for a maximum of two people/trip as a rule Settlement is based on actual costs in accordance with the State Travel Expenses Act
Invitations from visiting researchers for short-term stays to participate in teaching	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Travel expenses (allowances) Subsistence costs (allowances) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> one-off per person/trip up to € 800 within Europe or € 1,500 outside Europe Length of stay usually between 7 days and 1 month Daily rates for scientists: 89 €/per day up to 22 days 2000 €/per
Projects for the internationalization of teaching including virtual projects (international short-term programmes, integrated courses with international partners, tasks within the framework of international doctoral projects, etc.).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Travel and accommodation costs (allowances) for student excursions Travel and accommodation expenses (allowances) for tasks within the framework of international doctoral projects Material resources (subsidies) (consumables, advertising materials, room rental only if it can be proven that no free rooms are available. Hospitality costs and gifts for guests are not eligible) Organization costs Personnel resources (student assistants) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maximum funding amount per project: € 5,000

2. non-eligible measures and alternative options

Funds from the Internationalization Fund of the University of Bremen are only provided if no other funding options (for example, funds allocated to the faculties, funds from other central funds such as YERUN Research Mobility Award, Cardiff Fund) or third-party funds are available for the measures. The following measures and activities can therefore NOT be financed via the I-Fund:

Measures not eligible for funding	Possible alternative funding options
Scholarships for students (incoming and outgoing), funding for individual research stays or conference participation abroad	e.g. DAAD scholarship programs, ERASMUS, PROMOS

Internationalization fund
Status December 2024

Funding for individual research stays or conference participation abroad	Please check the information provided by the Central Research Funding Office (Ref12) or BYRD
Funding for guest lectures by foreign scientists	The faculties are responsible for and manage these funds
Trips to initiate partnerships or for the purpose of teaching and further training within the EU	ERASMUS mobility funds for researchers, university lecturers and non-academic staff