

Doctoral Supervision: Methods & Tools

Purpose

The purpose of this course is to expand supervisors' repertoire of concrete hands-on tool and strategies to make supervision a professional, effective, and enjoyable process. The purpose is also to create a safe space for supervisors to reflect on their role and to exchange experiences with other supervisors.

Learning outcome

At the end of the seminar, you can:

- ✓ align expectations with PhD candidates early and regularly regarding roles, time plans, and outcomes of the project,
- ✓ balance conflicting needs, e.g., between support and structure, between product and process, and between being private and professional,
- ✓ provide constructive text feedback,
- ✓ encourage PhD candidates' independence and ownership of their projects,
- ✓ apply questioning and listening skills to ensure progression and efficiency in supervision meetings,
- ✓ assist PhD candidates in project planning and support their progress,
- ✓ manage potential crises in the candidates' research journey,

How and when

The teaching form is highly interactive based on a combination of group work, exercises, plenary discussions, and lectures. The course is offered in English. The course is designed as a two-day workshop that runs the 5th-6st February 2025, 9.00-15.30. It takes place at University of Bremen. Room number to be announced. Please note that you are asked to prepare before the first workshop day, but you only need to allot approx. 15 minutes. It is a very brief exercise.

Facilitator:

Dr. Gitte Wichmann-Hansen is a Senior researcher at Aarhus University, Denmark and Professor at University of Agder, Norway. She also owns the consultancy "Academic Supervision" that offers high quality professional training of research supervisors.

She is an established publishing researcher within the field of supervision, and she has 15+ years of experience with running supervisor development programs at European Universities at all levels from Bachelor supervision to PhD supervision.

General information.

- You will receive a course certificate after completion of the seminar.
- Contact: Questions regarding the seminar, please e-mail Imke Girßmann, imke.girssmann@vw.uni-bremen.de