Help developing professional software with or without MeVisLab, or building web applications using modern frameworks like Angular, Vue, WebPack in the context of digital medicine. Assist in streamlining our development, testing, and machine learning software infrastructure using state-of-the-art tools like Puppet, Jenkins, or Docker.

What we expect from you:

- Some experience in software development, and lots of enthusiasm for it
- Basic knowledge of either Python, JavaScript, or C++
- Good English or German language skills

What you can expect from us:

- A friendly working environment close to the University of Bremen
- Self-determined work and the freedom to co-create new tasks
- Work within a young and interdisciplinary team of software developers and image processing researchers
- 32 working hours per month or more (negotiable)

Fraunhofer MEVIS is one of the leading global and internationally networked research and development centers for computer assistance in image-based medicine. It follows a patient-centered and workflow-oriented approach to resolve clinically relevant issues in image-based diagnosis and therapy. Fraunhofer MEVIS focuses on epidemiologically significant diseases of the cardiovascular system, the brain, breast, liver and lung, as well as oncological disorders.

The Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft places a high value on the equality of men and women in the workplace. Women are underrepresented in this field, so we especially look forward to applications from women. Family and career are balanced through flexible work hours, part-time opportunities, parent-child spaces and emergency childcare. Employment of persons with disabilities is also a high priority for us and a candidate with disabilities who possesses equal qualifications will be given preference.
