Duration of data storage

The University of Bremen provides the required data from the student management system via Shibboleth for the duration of the respective ticket validity or for the duration of the exemption from D-Seti, i.e. temporarily, for the current and future semester, and sends students entitled to tickets an e-mail with the link to access D-Seti.

The AStA of the University of Bremen collects the data required for the application process for exemption, reimbursement and chip card provision directly from the students submitting the application and transmits the data required for the purpose of blocking digital access to D-Seti or for producing and sending the chip cards to Digital H GmbH.

The data collected by the AStA of the University of Bremen as part of the application process for exemption, reimbursement and chip card provision will be deleted by the AStA of the University of Bremen no later than 12 months after the end of the semester in which the application was submitted.
