

Student assistant (f/m/d) in the International Office

Application deadline: 4 Oct. 2024

To support the kompass team in the International Office, we are looking for three dedicated student assistants from 1 November 2024 for approx. 10 hours per week.

We offer:

- an exciting and ever-changing working environment
- a secure job that you can easily combine with your studies
- flexible working hours, i.e. home office an in-office work

These tasks await you:

- working in an international team of students
- event organisation
- marketing for the kompass team

You will fit in the kompass team if you have the following qualities:

- ability to work in a team, independence and initiative, i.e. organising task and work-related processes yourself
- good German and English skills
- a structured way of working
- a talent for (self-)organisation

If you are interested, please send your application with a certificate of enrolment, a short letter of motivation, a CV in tabular form and any relevant certificates as a PDF by e-mail to Dr Jutta Paal (jutta.paal@vw.uni-bremen.de).

We look forward to receiving your application!
